THREE SONS TOTAL NINE YEARS SERVICE IN THREE BRANCHES OF ARMED FORCES

Nine years and one day for Uncle Sam is the total time chalked up to date by the Gardner brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gardner, of Route 4, Hamlin. All graduates of Hamlin High School, the three have served in the Army; T/Sgt. Harry Gardner, Jr., in the Infantry; S/Sgt. Edward W. Gardner, in the Service Forces; and Cpl. Robert C. Gardner, in the Air Forces.

T/Sgt. HARRY GARDNER, JR.

First to enter service on March 18, 1941, Sgt. Harry was also first to be discharged. He terminated his "official" standing with the Army this month and arrived home October 13. Right now he is trying to catch up on those lost vacations and to get the feel of being a civilian again. Harry says he is "just so happy to be home I can't get serious about the future."

Harry trained at Camp Roberts, Camp San Luis Obispo, and Ft. Ord, Calif. He was a member of the 159 Infantry that was given such intensive training in the California desert. Then Sgt. Gardner knew he was going to help fight the Japs, but no one was more surprised than he when his outfit was sent overseas, not to a South Pacific isle, but to Attu in the Aleutians. Gardner went overseas in June 1943 and was stationed on Attu for 19 months. His unit was returned to the States for additional training to be sent for the final drive against the Japs. Sgt. Gardner was at Camp Shelby, Miss., when V-J Day changed the destination of the 159th Infantry. He wears the American Defense ribbon, Good Conduct ribbon, and Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with campaign star for the Aleutians.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Jenkins and little son have gone to Hobbs, New Mex., to make their home. Mr. Jenkins, recently discharged from the Army Air Forces, is resuming his former position as assistant manager of the Acme Lumber Co. there.

S/Sgt. EDWARD W. GARDNER

Second of the brothers to enter service was Sgt. Edward Gardner, who donned a uniform on Feb. 12, 1943. He was sent to Camp Swift for training and has since been stationed there with the Army Service Forces. Prior to entering service, Sgt. Gardner was manager of the Farmers Oil and Supply Co. at Hamlin. His wife, the former Velta McCormick, is making her home here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McCormick, while her husband is in service.

Cpl. ROBERT C. GARDNER

Cpl. Robert Gardner, the youngest of the three brothers, was employed by Consolidated Aircraft in San Diego, Calif., when he decided to join his older brothers in uniform. Naturally he chose the Air Corps. He was sent to Sheppard Field, Texas; Drew Field, Fla.; and Amarillo Army Air Field, Texas, for training. At present Cpl. Gardner is stationed at Drew Field where he is an engineer in the ground forces.

Another member of the Gardner family, although not in uniform, is also in Government service. Miss Dorothy Gardner is employed in Washington, D. C., by a governmental department with offices in the Pentagon Building.

Visiting Minister At First Baptist Church For Sunday Services

The pulpit committee of the First Baptist Church is glad to announce that the Rev. Watts, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Honeygrove, will fill the pulpit in Hamlin at both the morning and evening hours.

We hope every member of the church will be present to hear Rev. Watts. Tell your neighbors, and be present Sunday.

Carmichaels-Shelburne Building Seven Houses

If there is anything Hamlin needs most, it is more housing room. This brings about one of the best building projects that has yet been attempted in this city.

Carmichael Brothers and Delma Shelburne are now building seven five-room houses in the Moore Addition in West Hamlin. We understand that these houses will be for sale, and being a mass production should be had at a price lower than would be expected.

These homes will be finished within about a month. From all indications, these houses are going to have some of the most modern features, something not yet seen in Hamlin.

Terry B. Cooper Died Suddenly Last Wed.

Terry B. Cooper, a pioneer rancher-farmer of Fisher County, died at his home on Wednesday, October 17, at 1:30 P. M. while taking a mid-day sleep. He lay down for a nap and soon his wife noticed something wrong. Death came in a few minutes.

Terry B. Cooper was the eldest child of the late T. B. and Josie Cooper, pioneer ranch people of Fisher County. He was born in Comanche County July 9, 1884, making his age at death, 61 years, three months and eight days. He came to this section of West Texas at the age of four and grew up on the ranch. He was married to Miss Pearl Reed of Stonewall County.

Survivors are his wife and four sons, Reed, Elmer, Roy, and Paul, all living at the parental home. One daughter, Mrs. Buck Scott, and one brother, T. Cooper, reside atampa. Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Ida Dix, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Pearce Holland, Rt. 2, Hamlin; Mrs. Lucy Williams, Vallejo, Calif.; and Mrs. Lillian Droke, San Antonio. Only Mrs. Droke and T. Cooper were able to come for the funeral. Mrs. Williams came later and will remain at the ranch several days.

Funeral services were held Friday, Oct. 19, at the Mt. Zion Nazarene Church, with Rev. H. C. Cagle of Buffalo Gap and Rev. J. T. Crawford of Hamlin in charge. Interment was in the Afton Cemetery under the direction of The Barrow Company.

Abilene Man Opens Hotel Coffee Shop

Eating in these days of war times and restrictions and lack of help is a great problem even for people with their own kitchens and dining rooms—so the information that a new place of good eats is opening for business is received with some relief—and we come now to introduce Hamlin people to R. M. (Bob) Whitaker of Abilene who is going to operate the Harden Hotel Coffee Shop.

Mr. Whitaker and his wife have rooms at the Harden Hotel. He has recently returned from the West Coast where he was a tool maker in a defense plant. He and his wife like Texas people better, so they have chosen one of the finest little cities in West Texas. He already finds this "Friendly Hamlin." He invites you down to see him in the Coffee Shop, any old day.

Foy Pribble Talked To Hamlin Thursday

Thursday morning Elmer Feagan received a long distance call from Hobbs, New Mex., and to his great surprise, it was the familiar voice of Foy Pribble, who has come home from Jap imprisonment. Mr. Feagan said he sounded natural and very happy. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Pribble, and his brother, Iris Pribble, went to California to meet him but missed him, and when they arrived home, it was Foy meeting the home-comers. He said he must report to Hot Springs for a stay before he gets his discharge. Perhaps on his way there, he will come by Hamlin to greet his old friends.

—O—

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wilson came in Thursday night of last week for a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Wilson. This is the first time Guy's wife has been in Hamlin. She seems delighted with everything, especially "Daddy Clyde" and Mrs. Wilson. Yes, she likes Texas even though she is a Kentuckian.

Who Said "13" Was An Unlucky Number?

"MR." CHARLES PRATER

Yes sir, who said THIRTEEN is an unlucky number? Look at this smiling face; he has fallen in love with good old 13. There are two reasons.

Last week we merely hinted that T/Sgt. Charles Prater was at home, and let it go at that. But after recalling all those long, and longer days when this "kid" was on the ocean, dodging German and Jap submarines, and then the long period of silence, we think it quite appropriate to get Charles' record in print. However, we may have to call "Sgt. of the Guard" to pull him off of Ye Editor.

Yes, sir, it is a long, long trail from Sheppard Field, Texas, by train, ship and water around South Africa, up across the Indian Ocean, around Australia, to New Guinea and its islands, back to the good old USA, then getting married, and spending a year in California, before his final discharge, and a good job as mail clerk in Hamlin's Post Office. All that would make a long story and a very interesting one.

It would include his anxious parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Prater, who finally received letters from Charles telling them how nice the Australian people were treating him. Ye Editor recalls one day when we joked Mrs. Prater about a foreign wife Charles might bring back. She replied, "It doesn't make much difference what color he brings home, just so he is all in one, sound piece"....and so he is just that, but in all those long months, and with all the "treatment," Charles did not forget his Lueders girl, Virginia Johnson, to whom he was married Nov. 11, 1944.

So all is well, and it is now "Mr." Charles Prater, and when you go to the Post Office, his million dollar smile will greet you.

But let's go back to Dec. 16, 1941. About then Charles was getting so angry at the Japs, he enlisted in

Hamlin Pipers Bow To Stamford Bulldogs 30-6

Last Friday night on Piper Field, the Stamford Bulldogs defeated Hamlin 30-6 for a conference victory. A passing combination, Billy Lowe to Sanford Hodge, accounted for the first three touchdowns, two in the first quarter for 45 yards and six yards, and another in the second period that covered twelve yards.

Lowe circled end for 30 yards and the fourth touchdown in the second quarter, and finished up the scoring with a 17-yard off tackle run late in the last quarter.

The Pipers tallied in the fourth quarter on a pass play, Brad Rowland to Billy Jack Owens, that covered 50 yards.

Stamford led 10 to six in first downs, 237 to 72 in yards gained rushing, and completed five of eight pass attempts while Hamlin completed seven of eight attempts.

Hamlin Pep Squad Uniforms Make Colorful Exhibition

The Hamlin Pep Squad, appearing for the first time on the home field in their new 1945 uniforms, gave an entertaining precision, military drill between halves. The uniforms, white wool skirts topped with long sleeved white blouses and green weskits, made a colorful performance before a crowd estimated at 2000.

This Friday night at 7:30, the Pipers will again play on their home field when they meet the Seymour Panthers in a conference game.

Texas Ranchman Makes Dandy Good Soldier

Sgt. WELTON R. JAMESON

Away back months and even as far back as October 1942, wonder how many times this young cowboy, Sgt. Welton R. Jameson, has tried to compare a Flying Fortress to a bucking pony or a bellowing steer? You know you can get the boy off the ranch, but you can't get the ranch off the boy's mind, even in war or peace. The latest address of Sgt. Welton R. Jameson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barto Jameson who live 15 miles west of Hamlin in Fisher County, was given as Alconbury, England, with the 8th Air Force, 25th Bomber Sqdn. Sgt. Jameson is a power turret mechanic, and we may rest assured he is a good one.

It was only about 19 years from the time Jameson was born in Fisher County till he graduated from the Dowell School, May 2, 1939. But all this time he had rather wrestle steers than boys. Well, the time came to show his colors for his country and the wide-open spaces he had lived with in freedom. So he enlisted in the Army Air Forces Oct. 8, 1942. That is a long time ago, the way a young man figures it.

Sgt. Jameson trained at Harlingen Moore Field, Texas; Denver, Colo.; Detroit, Mich.; and Dyersburg, Tenn. He went overseas in Dec. 1943. The B-17 Flying Fortress was his plaything, and the power turret his nesting place. Up to the last report he had received the Good Conduct Medal and four battle stars on the ETO ribbon.

Soon he will be at home, herding on the range again, and maybe will try to dim out his memories of war and planes, and settle down and some day be prominent in the affairs of his native county. He was supposed to have sailed for the states on Oct. 21. He will likely receive his discharge at Love Field, Dallas. Welcome home, "Cowhand," we will be looking for you.

first to go home. But we all can't be first. I would hate to have the responsibility of getting the armies back home. It would take a lot of trucks." Lindsey asks about crops, grain, and about getting a job from Elmer Brewer. He tells about the "pretty good sized" building they occupy. He adds, "This town is pretty well burned out. It looks like it had been done with a big blow torch, and they just burned where they wanted to."

A few quotations from his first letter: "I am sending you a news sheet from Yokohama; see if Bowen can reproduce it. This country is in a hell of a shape; some but not a high per cent, of the people are starving. There are a few Americans alive here who went through the war in Japan. Starr, I am sending you a 10 yen note, worth about 66 cents American. I am not expecting you to pay me for it. It is a present to you for the few things you have done for me—above all, you answered my letters."

Hamlin Navy Man Writes From Pacific

Walter Taylor Sipe, AOM 2/c, wrote the Herald some weeks ago that since he is in the Regular Navy he will not get out till about Dec. and may be back in Hamlin by Jan. or Feb. One point in his letter was, "What do you think of the strikes and the people behind them? They are not very well thought of by us service men. There should be some way to handle them." Sipe went over into the Pacific in 1943 and back again in '44. Just look at the map and the list of islands were almost all visited by this old Hamlin boy.

(YES, Taylor, we think somebody should print the things you boys are thinking. The time has come when your voices must be heard, and we are glad to help.)

"AMERICANS"

We, the fighting men, gave up our homes, our loved ones, and our higher paying jobs to free our country and the world of its criminals. Some of us have been "Heroes," some of us "Aces of the Sky," and the rest of us just plain, hard-fighting Americans. We didn't ask for any more than a chance to fight when we came in, and we will not ask for any more than a chance to live our own way when we get out. A chance to make a living without being bossed by a Labor Union. A union is good for the people when run right; but there are doubts about our unions of today.

There are some so-called good Americans who are interested only in their pockets, which are already fat—not in the interest of all. What if the American Soldier, Sailor and Marine had had this ideal? Would these so-called Americans be in a position now to strike for higher wages? No, I am afraid they would not. They would probably be asking some war criminal of Germany, Japan for a very small piece of bread.

We do not believe that the American people should pity or "baby" the service men when they return, but we do believe in fair play—an equal chance and equal rights. If striking for higher wages is an equal right and fair play, then the American people are not living up to our American Constitutional way of life that was formed when our country of freedom was founded.

Something should be, and we hope, will be done about it.
Taylor Sipe, AOM 2/c.

Mrs. L. S. Magee has received a telegram from her son, Coy L. Magee, SK 1/c, saying that he is now a civilian. He was discharged Oct. 21 at Boston, Mass., and has gone to Washington, D. C., to resume his former position with the General Accounting Dept. He served three years with the Navy, 19 months of that time in the Mediterranean theater of operations.

HAMLIN MARINE DISCHARGED

T/Sgt. Bryan Phenix, a Marine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Phenix, arrived in Hamlin from San Diego with his discharge from the service. It was with a grand smile that Bryan told the Herald to change his address to City Box 273, instead of "Somewhere in the Pacific."

He entered the Marines Sept. 16, 1942. He spent 14 months overseas with the Marine Air Corps. Bryan is only 22 and "tall as a tree." The next few days, maybe weeks, he will look around before going to work.

S&S

Pfc. Truman Boiles writes his sister, Mrs. J. W. Stapler, from Reims, France. He is greatly peeved by the strikes of the dock workers back home at ship yards. He says, "From the way they are acting, we may have to stay here six months or a year. It looks like they have forgotten that we came over here so they could have the jobs they now have... maybe you think men over here are not boiling about it, too... It wouldn't do for the Army to turn this bunch of men loose on the strikers in ship yards, for they hate them worse than they did the Germans or Japs." (So there is another soldier heard from, No, soldiers do not like to fight "the other fellow's war" and be delayed in getting home because of the other fellow's striking-griping-crave for a few more dollars.)

S&S

The Herald has information that Pvt. James T. Carter has been discharged from the Army at Davis Monthan Field, Ariz. He joined the Army in October 1942 and has four battle stars for his service in the Italian war. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Carter, Route 3.

S&S

McCLELLAN FIELD, Calif.—Sgt. Melvin J. Meeks, of San Angelo, is a civilian again today following his discharge at this army separation point after five years of service with the Army Air Forces.

He was overseas in the ETO with the 12th Air Force as a cook from December 1941 to January 1945. He is the son of George A. Meeks of Hamlin.

S&S

Public Relations office of the 36th "Texas" Division informs the Herald that S/Sgt. Herman R. Treadwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Treadwell and husband of the former Loleta Ubben, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal "for meritorious service in sustained front-line combat operations against the enemy." Treadwell received his discharge from the service July 31, 1945, and is now employed by an oil well drilling company in Stonewall county.

T. L. Smith is out of the Navy and at home. His rank was Metal-smith 1/c, but now he wears a better insignia—the discharge button. He arrived home last week after serving in the Navy three years, eight months and three days. He says "days count like years now," so he adds "three days." He spent 27 months in the Pacific in the ship repair department. Travis is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wood Smith.

HAMLIN'S FIRST MARINE AT HOME FROM SERVICE

Remember George Dean, the handsome Marine Corporal, the boy who in 1939 joined the Marines? Well, George has been places and seen things. But that's all over now. A few days ago he received his discharge. Remember when George returned home on furlough with that flashing Marine uniform on? It caught several boys for that branch.

George enlisted soon after his graduation from Hamlin High School in 1939. He spent his time in New Caledonia and the Canal Zone, '42-'43, and 20 months at Pearl Harbor, Dec. 1943 to Oct. 1945. He is a son of the late R. S. Dean, and Mrs. Dean who makes her home in Hamlin. George's friends are glad to see him at home—all safe and sound.

Robert Frank Walton, Jr., WT 2/c, arrived home last Friday to spend a 15-day leave here with his mother, Mrs. Perry Sparks, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Chastain. He is one of Hamlin's Regular Navy men and has seen extensive action in both the Atlantic and the Pacific. At present, Walton is serving aboard the EUROPA, the German merchant liner which has been converted into a Navy transport, and is the third largest ship in the world.

S&S

Mrs. James I. Steed of Dallas gives the Herald some belated news about her son (really her new grandson). She says: "Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Steed have announced the birth of a seven and a half pound son, Harry Robert, on August 2, at St. Mary's Hospital in Philadelphia." The father is the well known James Steed of Hamlin, the "Old Sailorboy" who was roaming the Pacific long before Pearl Harbor. Although Jimmie is a man now and made a big hero sailor, it won't seem natural to hear him called Dad. Congratulations. Mrs. Steed says she did not "burn all the bridges between Hamlin and Dallas, and don't be surprised if we come back to a good town."

Wedding Vows Recited In Candle-lit Service

Miss Margery Riddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Riddle, was married to Lt. Robert L. Fowler, son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Fowler, in a candle-lit ceremony Sunday afternoon, October 21, at three o'clock, in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ross Fomby, on Lake Drive. The ceremony was read by Minister Mardell Lynch, pastor of the Church of Christ.

The mantel held an arrangement of gardenias with a background of fern. Tall candelabra holding lighted white candles were placed on each side, with floor baskets of gladioluses and pink asters completing the decorations.

The bride wore a wool suit of soldier blue with black accessories. Her flowers were gardenias fashioned into a shoulder corsage.

Mrs. J. B. Terrell, sister of the bride, was her attendant. Major J. B. Terrell served as best man.

The bride is a graduate of Hamlin High School and attended North Texas State Teachers College in Denton. For the past year, she has been employed at the Waggoner Drug Co. in Hamlin.

Lt. Fowler is a graduate of Hamlin High School and John Tarleton College in Stephenville. He returned from the European theater of war in June, where he was with the Eighth Air Force, based in England. He is now on terminal leave and will receive his discharge in November.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for the wedding party and immediate families of the bride and groom. The wedding cake, frosted in white and topped with a gardenia, was served with punch by Miss Elsie Weinke and Mrs. Fomby from a table laid with an Irish damask cloth and appointed with crystal. White candles and gardenias formed the table decorations.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Kenneth Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Glenn and children of Lubbock.

Lt. and Mrs. Fowler left immediately for New Mexico, where he will be employed by the Standard Oil Company.

During Planning Stage

is the time to decide on house heating

Building a new home or bringing an old one up to date with a remodeling job requires many decisions in the planning stage. Probably none is more important than deciding on the method of heating the house since heat is so essential to comfort and health.

Whether you decide to heat your new home with floor furnaces, circulating heaters, gasteam radiators or a combination of these, or with a central furnace, the location of the equipment should be determined during the planning stage of the house so the necessary flues for venting the equipment can be shown in specifications and on plans.

The new gas heating equipment for venting to a flue will be coming off production lines in substantial quantities by January. So there is time to carefully plan with your architect or builder the heating of your new home. It is most important to plan heat as part of house if sought-after natural gas heat is to be enjoyed at its best.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

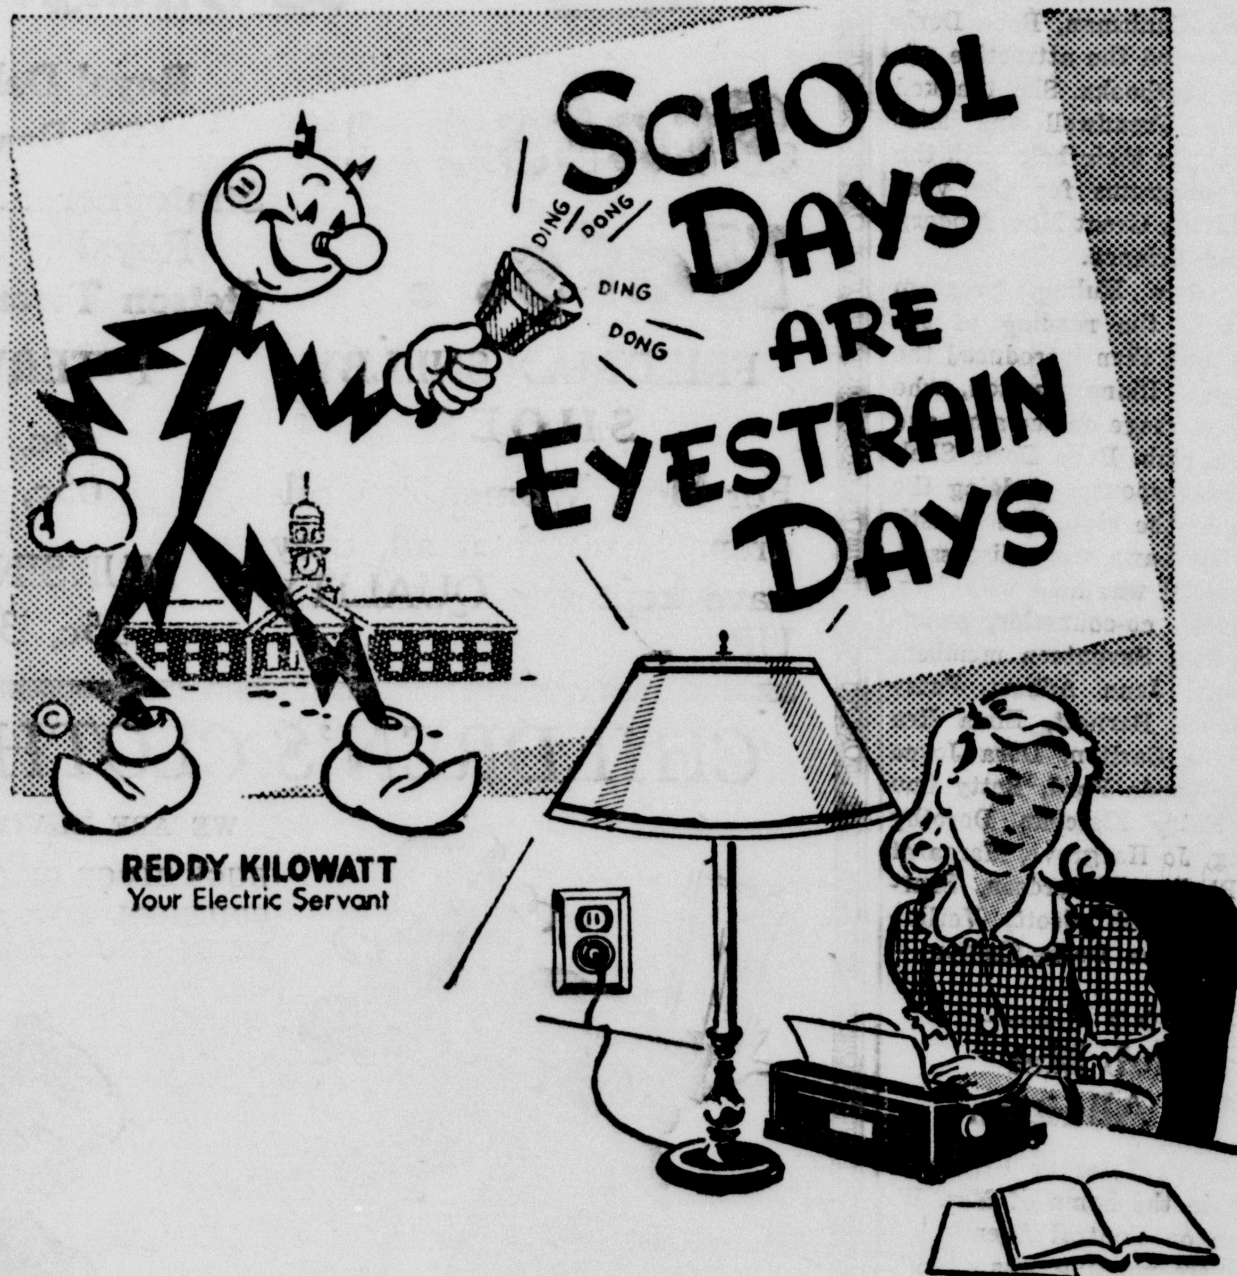

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

WITH the fall come shorter periods of daylight, and this calls for the use of more artificial light.

Ninety-five per cent of the children enter school with good normal eyesight. On leaving school twelve years later, twenty-five per cent will be in need of glasses, and upon graduating from university thirty-five per cent will require them.

A large percentage of defective vision is the result of eyestrain caused by inadequate lighting. Children give little thought to the care of their eyes. For instance, a favorite position when doing homework or reading the "funnies" is on the floor. Habits such as this should be corrected.

Good light is always important. Fortunately we can now purchase for a penny as much light as cost a dollar not long before our parents were born. Young eyes have years of work ahead of them and good lighting pays in dividends more precious than money.

Necessity Of Rat Control Stressed Now

AUSTIN.—Because of the economic losses they cause to industry and commerce and the annoyance they create in homes, rats have been considered a serious menace to mankind since long before their role as vectors of disease was understood. Today at least six diseases are known to be transmitted to man from the rat, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. These diseases include the dread plague, typhus, trichinosis, a form of jaundice, tapeworm, and food poisoning. Typhus fever, in the past few years, has become a major health problem in Texas.

"It is necessary to public health," Dr. Cox said, "that a continuous rat control program be maintained in every urban and rural area throughout Texas. This is of especial importance on farms where rats may flourish by feeding on grain and other farm products."

The Doctor pointed out that rats, like other living things, require food and shelter if they are to propagate and increase in number. Destroying their shelter and breeding places, includes the employing of ratproof design in buildings, employing ratproof methods of construction and installation, and providing for periodic inspection of buildings to insure permanent safety. This program will force the rat out into the open where its destruction may be accomplished.

Of equal importance as a control measure is the elimination of all food supplies. This consists of storing all foods in ratproof containers, the proper storage of garbage in closed containers until disposal, and careful feeding of stock to prevent waste feed from being picked up by the rats.

By observing these control measures, the community will benefit not only in the eradication of a nuisance and economic menace but in improved health conditions and the certain decrease in the incidence of typhus which, alone, would make the control program worthwhile.

Texans Ready To Help With Clothing Drive

Henry J. Kaiser, National Chairman of the Victory Clothing Collection for overseas relief, scheduled for January 7-31, 1946, announced that already 1,395 men and women have agreed to serve as local chairmen in their communities.

The majority of these men and women organized their communities in the successful collection of used, serviceable clothing of last spring which was also headed by Mr. Kaiser.

Wisconsin leads with 97 acceptances. Texas is second with 89 and New York third with 87.

America's spring cleaning which was done in answer to the plea "What Can You Spare That They Can Wear?" yielded enough clothing to help 25,000,000 war victims in Europe, China, and the Philippines, according to UNRRA (the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration).

The goal of the Victory Clothing Collection is 100,000,000 serviceable garments in addition to shoes and bedding. Contributors are invited to attach good-will letters to their clothing gifts.

According to UNRRA and other relief agencies working overseas, the 25,000,000 people assisted are only a small percentage of the destitute, homeless and looted people who are in desperate need of clothing. Conditions are such that Canada, Australia and New Zealand have been conducting clothing collections for relief of the invaded and bombed countries, and President Truman has announced that the need justifies another appeal to the people of the United States.

PAMPHLETS ON RETURNING SERVICEMEN AND WORKERS

Two pamphlets pointing out the importance of returning servicemen and war workers to their home towns have been written by Dr. Harry E. Moore, professor of sociology at the University of Texas, and his wife, Dr. Bernice Milburn Moore, family life consultant for the Hogg Foundation at the University. The pamphlets are "Through Their Own Front Door," and "What the Community Can Do Now for its Servicemen." The pamphlets are being distributed through USO centers.

POT-SHOTS FROM McCauley

BY GEO DARDEN

Sgt. and Mrs. Leo E. Emmot, of Memphis, Tenn., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lee, last week. Mrs. Emmot is the former Faye Lee.

Sunday, Oct. 28, at the 11 o'clock hour, E. M. Connell, district lay leader for the Abilene district, will speak at the McCauley Methodist Church. A sextet from McMurry College, will sing at 2:00 P. M. There will be a speaker for the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Dean and daughter of Fort Worth visited parents and other relatives here last week end.

The Charley Elvens family were all together over the week end and had Sunday dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Gray at Sylvester. Those present were: Pvt. Ellis Elvens of Ft. Lewis, Wash., his wife and children; Mr. and Mrs. Linnie Wheeler Elvens of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. Granville Dean of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Charley Elvens and twins; and Mr. and Mrs. Milo Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Webb and sons, Gerald and Clifford, have returned to their home in McCauley after a ten day visit with relatives in Fort Worth.

Ed Mason of Galveston is visiting his mother and sister in McCauley. Another son, Merle Mason, of Houston is also a visitor in the Mason home.

Joe Miers of the Seabees wires from San Francisco that he landed there last Sunday and will be at home shortly. He has been in the Philippines.

Sgt. Smith of the U. S. Marines and a brother of Mrs. Roy Hennington is visiting mother and sister and family in McCauley.

Jack Frost visited this community last Sunday night. Better get in those sweet potatoes for Christmas. A fat O'Possum and candied yams—yum, yum.

And thanks to Levi McCollum who forks over the sum of three dollars for two subscriptions. And by the way, F. L. Rector felt the urge and renewed for another year. Watch that date, folks, on your Herald. You may get left out in the cold with no Pot-Shots to keep you warm.

You, perhaps, won't get excited; but McCauley community is going to awake some morning in the midst of one of the great oil fields of the State. Did you know that three new wells are now drilling or are about to drill just south and east of town? Did you know that real estate in McCauley is changing hands so fast that after a night's sleep a dozen deals may have been made while you so peacefully slumbered? No, we are not kidding; you had better get in on the ground floor if you ever expect to get holdings in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carter have purchased a home in town from Henry Thompson. Mr. and Mrs. Carter operate McCauley's cafe.

Geo. Darden has purchased the brick drug store building on Main Street from D. L. Nickless; even got the soda fountain in the deal. What are we going to open up? Maybe so a general store; maybe so a drug store; maybe so something else. Frankly, we got a notion that a skating rink would make the most dough right now. Maybe so we sell to somebody else. Who knows?

Frankie Sue Madden and Lavon Stewart of Hamlin spent the week end with Bonnie Beth Jones in McCauley.

W. T. Lawlis is back home and a civilian once again. After marching through Germany, France, and other countries where the going was tough, he is now back on the farm. Happy? I'll say.

Home from the wars are two sons of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wicker. They are Jack and Tellus. Maybe so pretty soon, Tellus will get a discharge, and not until after two trips overseas. Once after the Japs; then after the Germans. Jack, too, was in Germany, France, and other countries.

Divide Beats McCauley 25-7

The Divide six-man football team powered its way to a decisive score of 25-7 over the McCauley Eagles. The McCauley touchdown came on the opening kick-off when Kidd took the ball on the 10-yard line and, behind good blocking, went all the way to pay dirt. The extra point was made with Kidd carrying.

The Divide team came back four plays later and scored. They scored one touchdown in each quarter. This was a hard fought game, but the Divide team had a little too much for the Eagles.

Comment No. 1—

We hear a lot of talk about the OPA a damming the people, etc., but listen, neighbor; the OPA may be "bureaucrats" and all that, but did you ever stop to think that had it not been for OPA we would have had inflation long ago. Didn't OPA keep food and clothes prices in reach of all during this war? We can still have inflation and if it comes, the "little fellow" hasn't got a chance. Wait and see.

Some of the little merchants who have been listening to their Congressmen and Senators telling them that the OPA was killing free enterprise are sure getting the "bum steer," should they swallow such stuff.

We admit that during the war we were told what to do here and what to do there. But as a whole we have done better than we ever did before since we have been in business. You hate to admit it, but it's a fact. Had it not been for OPA, the big boys would have gobbled up the little merchants; they would have been out of business because the big merchants would have gobbled up all of the supplies. O, you say they did gobble up the supplies. That isn't so, and if you have been around much, you will find that you can come closer to getting necessities in the one horse towns from little merchants than in the city from the big merchants.

Because of the OPA, the war workers being demobilized today have a little money in the bank to tide them over a period of unemployment. If it had not been for OPA, they would be penniless as well as hungry, because the free-enterprise monopolies would have taken all their wages for food.

There is still danger of inflation. If selfish, unscrupulous congressmen and senators have their way, all federal controls will be eliminated. That would mean no more control over food prices; no more control over rents; no more control over any prices whatsoever. Better watch out, neighbor.

Home Making Club

The Second Year girls of the Future Home Makers Club met Oct. 24 for the second time since their organization at the first of school. Plans were made for the booth we are going to have for the Junior Carnival. The Club will sponsor a fortune-tellers booth and will also sell an angel food cake.

We want everyone to come to the Junior Carnival and visit our booth. Prices on the cake are 10c a ticket. (Betty Jane Barry, Reporter.)

Mrs. Annie Stewart and son, Joe, and grandson, Alvin, returned last week from Benson, Ariz., where they visited her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Bonner and family, for about two weeks.

Miss Hortense Phenix came over the past week end from McMurry College, Abilene, to be with her brother, Marine T/Sgt. Bryan Phenix, who is at home "for good," and to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Phenix.
